Army Notes.

Mrs. D. H. Boughton, widow of Col. Boughton, U. S. A., is making her permanent home in this city at 1607 28th street northwest.

Brig. Gen. Charles H. Whipple, U. S. A., retired, is visiting friends in York, N. Y., having gone there from Los Angeles, where he has made his home since his retirement. Gen. Whipple has many army friends in Washington, where he was formerly stationed, and they had hoped that he would make this city his permanent home.

Mrs. William Sinclair, widow of Gen. Sinclair, U. S. A., who spends the winter here at the Rochambeau, has returned to the city for the season.

Lieut. Ernest B. Gose, U. S. A., retired, accompanied by his family, has gone to San Diego, Cal., to reside.

Col. Hobart K. Bailey, U. S. A., and wife have been spending a fortnight at Atlantic City, where they were at the Marlborough-Blenheim.

Mrs. J. L. Bevans, wife of Maj. Bevans, U. S. A., has joined her husband at El Paso. Their son, J. L. Bevans, Jr., will spend the winter in Washington at a West Point preparatory school.

Mrs. H. A. Drum, wife of Capt. Drum, U. S. A., has gone to Fort Sam Houston, Tex., to join her husband. Mrs. Drum was accompanied by their daughter and her sister, Miss Shuy Reame.

Maj. Charles Gerhardt, U. S. A., and wife, accompanied by their daughter, have returned from the Canal Zone, where they have spent the past few years, and are in Washington for the winter at the Marlborough.

Maj. Gen. William W. Wotherspoon, U. S. A., retired, is receiving congratulations upon his selection by the governor of New York for the important position of superintendent of public works. Gen. and Mrs. Wotherspoon are well known in Washington, where they were stationed for a number of years. They have spent the summer at their cottage in Jamestown, going from here to their home in Albany, where they have resided since Gen. Wotherspoon's retirement.

Capt. Mahlon Ashford, U. S. A., and wife are settled in their new quarters at Fort Leavenworth. During Capt. Ashford's absence last season on the border Mrs. Ashford spent the winter in this city.

Mrs. Schlanzer, wife of Capt. Schlanzer, U. S. A., after a visit to her parents in this city, has returned to Columbus barracks, Ohio.

Capt. Alfred W. Bjornstad, U. S. A., has been tendered the appointment of military attaché at the American embassy in Vienna.

At the present time Capt. Bjornstad is instructor in military art at the army service schools at Fort Leavenworth, and prior to that was for three years military attaché at Berlin, where he was succeeded by Col. Joseph E. Kuhn, U. S. A.

Mrs. Regan, wife of Capt. Regan, U. S. A., will stop to visit friends in New York and Washington en route from Plattsburg to the border, where she will join her husband.

Admiral and Mrs. Thomas B. Howard, who have made their home at Stoneleigh Court for several years, have leased the residence at 1555 Kalorama road and will take possession about October 1. They will have with them this winter Mrs. Howard's sister, Miss Claude, and their daughter, Mrs. James Proctor Morton, wife of Commander Morton, who is in command of the Scorpion.

DuBois-Hector.

The announcement has been received here of the marriage of Mr. Francis W. DuBois, formerly of this city, and Miss Pearl Hector of Duluth at the bride's home, September 16. They will make their home in Baker, Mont.

RETURNS FROM EXTENDED TRIP.

MISS JOSEPHINE DALEY.

Dawson-Carey.

Mrs. John Martin Carey of Washington avenue, Bridgeport, Conn., announces the marriage of her sister, Miss Pauline Buckley, and Mr. Chris Cox Dawson, formerly of Washington, D. C., Wednesday, September 30, at 7 p.m.

The ceremony took place in the rectory of St. Augustine's Church, Rev. Father James Nihil officiating.

Mrs. Mary Upton, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Carroll H. Dawson, a brother of the bridegroom, were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson upon their return from their wedding trip will reside at 2458 North Main street, Bridgeport.

Strasburger-Saxe.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage of Mr. Irving Strasburger, son of Mr. Z. Strasburger, formerly of this city, but now of New York, and Miss Clara Saxe of Ottumwa, Iowa.

Miss Saxe was the guest during the past winter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Strasburger of the Kenosaw.

Anacostia.

Mr. and Mrs. William Scantlebury and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Frazier enjoyed a brief stay at Rock Point, Md., recently. The Rev. W. O. Roome, Jr., rector of Emmanuel Church, has returned to his home on Maple View avenue, after a visit to Norfolk, Va., and other points in Virginia.

Mrs. Roome, who also has been spending some time out of the city, has returned to her home.

Mr. Kane Fyles, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Fyles, has returned to his home on Nichols avenue, after spending several weeks at the Plattsburg military camp. Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Davenport have returned to their home on Maple View avenue after passing the summer at Colonial Beach.

Mr. Charles V. Staler of Maple View avenue has returned to his home after a vacation spent in Maryland and Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tolson and family of Piney Point, Md., are occupying their winter home on High street.

La Vida Corsets

Remember how many hours of your life you have to pass laced within your corset. How necessary it is to get a corset in which you can be at ease! In a La Vida Corset you are so comfortable, life has a new meaning; not alone in your figure, but better health; freedom, buoyancy, that brings its own grace, poise and style.

Select your corsets with great care and always have your corsets fitted. We gladly fit the La Vida-in fact, we urge it.
